	NIDAP/R/E/21/00007	08-04-2021	Once I have been shortlisted (mail attached) then how the authorities have been showing as no candidate found eligible in their website.	You were provisionally shortlisted subject to the submission of required documents. Since the documents provided by you were insufficient to the eligibility criteria, you were not shortlisted.

The shortlisting is a part of selection process and it is provisional in your case. Mere shortlisting does not make the candidate eligible for the post unless they fulfil the required criteria or provide documentary proof. |
| | | | If no candidate was found suitable then I should have been asked for forwarding of the service document through mail for further management but the mail indicates that the screening committee provisionally shortlisted subject to the forwarding of the document which is contrary to the latest post of non-eligibility which requires justification. | Additional documents were required for scrutiny purpose by the Screening Committee. The decision on none found suitable was arrived after considering all the documents. |
| | | | Can you pls provide me the list of responded candidates and your screening committee recommendations interlia giving break up of how non-eligibility has been arrived at? | Total Applications received : 15 Nos.

The applicants did not meet the essential eligibility criteria as notified vide advertisement dated 11/12/2019. |
| | | | The post on the latest non-eligibility given on the website has no clear indication that they are going to call for another notification or it has been canceled keeping all the candidates in dark and abeyance. | This is not an information as defined under section 2(f) of RTI Act 2005

Updates on recruitment may be seen from the Institute website from time to time. |
| | | | The post also specifies that no candidate has been found eligible for the next level. What is that level? and how was it determined despite of my Armed forces experience of 20 years , corporate experience of 3 years, by the screening committee, needs clarification | The next level will be the next process of selection.

Your candidature does not fulfil the eligibility criteria as notified in the advertisement. |
